

ENRICHMENT SERIES

Why Poetry Matters: Poetry of Protest and Prayer

Bonnie Thurston

Thomas Merton Scholar

Published Author

Poet

Editor

Avid Reader

Gardener

Cook

Classical Music Lover

In a world of fake news, real disaster, and international political turmoil, why should we care about poetry? Perhaps because (along with silence) poetry is God's language. After a brief reflection on the critical importance of poetry and language in times like these, Bonnie Thurston will read from her own poetry of protest and prayer. There will be time for Q & A and discussion of the poems.

WEDNESDAY

JUNE 26, 2019

7:00 PM

Mount St. Benedict Monastery

6101 East Lake Road

Erie, PA 16511

Benedictine
✝ Sisters of Erie

Free and Open to the Public